

Debra Bergman – Bio

Debra Bergman joined Paramount TV in 2017 as SVP, Production. Prior to that, she was at FremantleMedia. There, she served as SVP, Scripted Production overseeing production for the company's burgeoning scripted business, including the Starz series American Gods. Previously, Bergman was VP of Production for Sony Pictures where she oversaw various films including: Superbad, Captain Phillips, Smurfs 1 & 2, The Social Network and the last three installments of the Spiderman franchise. Earlier in her career, she found her passion in film production, producing Lovely and Amazing and The Assassination of Richard Nixon among others. Bergman is a member of the DGA, PGA & TV Academy. She is Co-Founder of Women's Production Society supporting equity in the work place.