

Elvis Mitchell Bio

Film critic Elvis Mitchell is the host of KCRW's nationally syndicated pop culture and entertainment show, "The Treatment." He has served as a film critic for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, LA Weekly, Detroit Free Press and the New York Times and as a pop culture commentator for Weekend Edition on NPR. Mitchell has also served as editor-at-large at Spin Magazine and is a special correspondent for Interview Magazine. In 2008, the interview show Elvis Mitchell: Under the Influence began airing on Turner Classic Movies. He's a visiting lecturer at Harvard, producer and co-creator of the NAACP Image Award-winning documentary, The Black List, the curator for the Film Independent program at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and a Film Scholar at the University of Nevada.