

George Pennacchio – Bio

George Pennacchio is the longtime entertainment reporter for ABC7 Eyewitness News. He also hosts the station's yearly Oscar pre- and post-shows, which are syndicated LIVE all around the world. During his broadcasting career, George has won three Emmy Awards. He's also been honored with The Press Award by The Publicists Guild of America for his coverage of the entertainment industry. And he's only one of six journalists who have received The Critics' Critic Award from The Broadcast Film Critics Association, North America's largest critics group. George serves on the board of the charity group, The Thaliens, which raises money for mental health, currently supporting our Wounded Warriors. He and his wife, Erin, also rescue greyhounds once their racing days are over.
